

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Media Ownership should continue to be protected. I could envision future ownership narrowing down to one or two owners and then a middle eastern oil power moving in and suddenly owning 3/4 of our nations cable cos. Then we have terrorists preaching their views right in our living rooms.
